

Manifesto

We, as a group of youngsters who joined the Yehey Camp, which is sponsored by the Laura Vicuna Foundation, Inc of the Salesian Sisters for the advocacy of promoting the protection and well-being of the youth do understand the importance of the rights of the children and the youngsters.

We believe that the youth have an important responsibility towards our fellowmen so that they could have a successful life in the future and to become useful in our society fostering peace and fear of the Lord.

Being created in the likeness of God, we have the dignity to respect ourselves and our fellowmen and to treat men equally whatever their status and past experiences in life. We are committing to the utmost of our ability in order to realize the ff:

We will help in strengthening the advocacy for the protection and well-being of the children and the youth in our community.

We will influence the parents to join in the dialogue for the family together with the youth in order to prevent exploitation, violence, teenage pregnancy and also human trafficking.

We will join projects for the environment such as “zero-waste management” so that we could show the importance of protecting Mother Nature.

We, the young will have a monthly meeting or dialogue to discuss what we intend to accomplish as incorporated in this Manifesto and we will also provide a report to Laura Vicuna Foundation, Inc. In order to update them regarding our progress in our initiatives.

We are all affixing our signature to this Manifesto to show that we are accepting the challenge of helping other children in our community today, dated 24th of August, 2014 in the Mornese Center of Spirituality, Pansol, Calamba, Laguna.

Name

Signature